John 13: 31-35

“JUST ONE MORE THING BEFORE I GO...”

It was an emotionally draining moment for sure. He would be leaving them soon. It was like: ‘goodbye’ dear friends. Like a good friend, he was saying, “Just one more thing before I go, LOVE ONE ANOTHER.” This would be His last will. This was his inheritance. This was what he wanted the disciples to remember Him by. The commandment to love was not new. The kind of love that made it different, “Love as I have loved.” Love that lays down one’s life for another.

Then He goes and lays down His life for us.

Today, He invites us to love like Him. He does not lower the bar, but invites us to reach higher, for He know that we are created to love in the image and likeness of God.
