Today Jesus promises his disciples the gift of peace. Ever since we alienated ourselves from God, we have become restless. Our rest is return to the arms of God. The peace that Jesus offers is not the kind the world offers.

Peace is not just the absence of war. Peace is: presence of God in our life-then we are complete. Thorough the Holy Spirit, in God the Father, I am with you. I will be with you always. It is reassuring to listen to the words of Jesus: 'Do not be troubled; do not be afraid. Just believe.'
