...and they were filled with the Holy Spirit.

Acts 2: 4

The tongues of fire descended upon the Apostles. Everything changed for them. It was like rain in a dry land getting its first rain. The apostles were filled with the holy Spirit. The timid, lifeless men, frightened men became inspired, brave people. They knew no fear any longer. They were ready now for anything and everything. They spoke every tongue; they went all over the land, preaching. It was a wild fire spreading fast and furious. No longer were contained in the little room. Nothing could limit them. They were unstoppable. The Holy Spirit had taken over.

Let us allow the Holy Spirit into our lives too.
