NO TURNING BACK...

There were many challenges in Jesus' life. He moved resolutely on.

On and on he went, doing good, healing people, teaching love and loving. Often through hostile territory, facing oppositions doggedly on.

They wanted him, they hated him. They needed him, they betrayed him. They called him a blasphemer, they called him King. They put down their clothes for him to walk on, the next day they dragged him through the streets. They called him the prince of demon, then they hailed him as son of God.

But he prodded on...because he had a cause: the will of God.

On and on he went until they hung him on the cross.

Some he calls: 'follow me'. To him, some say: 'I need to bury the dead'.

What about you?

Next weekend, there will be a volunteer at the back of the church selling Rosaries after all masses. Please come by and support as all the proceeds go to Dr. Simone Canadian Food for the Children.

Graduating Class of 2022!!!

We would like to send our warmest congratulations to all who will be graduating this month. The parish community are praying for each of you!

“Gracious and caring God, our source of light, we ask for your almighty hand to be upon these graduates as we send them forward. With their classes and grading now complete, may they strive toward excellence in all they do. Amen.”
